

Below is the unedited statement from Jessie:

“Jessie LaVon Artwork

January 4, 2024

International folk artist Jessie LaVon, who has had the great pleasure of showing at Kentuck with Charlie “Tin Man” Lucas, Lonnie Holley, and the late Woody Long, Jimmy Lee Sudduth, Mose T, Berniece Sims and established folk artist Michael Banks.

Jessie will permanently be stepping down from the folk art world. after 51 years. Jessie will be disposing of all of her art supplies.

She will no longer be painting and creating unique art works. Her art will no longer be for sale after the current inventory is sold out. The only two places that will be selling her art is

www.PossumCounty.com

www.mikesarttruck.com

Jessie said that she will always be thankful for the support and friendship of collectors that bought her art and other artists, especially Ms Georgine Clark, long time friend Charlie Lucas, Woody and Dot Long and others.”